3. Communications

Father Miller thanked the PCCW members for their good work and efforts at the 150th foundation Celebration of the Felician Sisters in America meal.

Sister J. M. sent a card: "Thank you for creating such a memorable and delicious celebration for the Felician Sisters 150th anniversary of their arrival in Polonia. The dinner was incredible and your hospitality was over the top. Hope your Thanksgiving and Christmas Holidays are filled with many blessings."

Sister Mary Ursula sent a thank you note: "It was just a few weeks ago that I boarded that bus along with other Felician Sisters for the 150th foundation Celebration of the Felician Sisters in America. How proud I am to be a Felician Sister! It was just wonderful to see you as well as some of the Parishioners for Mass in the Church and down in the Church Hall. The dinner and especially the side dishes, and desserts that all of you ladies prepared were so delicious. Watching you ladies move around was like the past. That day brought back many memories. Thank the ladies for me.”

The Stanczyk family sent a card: “the family of Beverly Stanczyk would like to THANK YOU all for the kindness, support, and prayers offered to Bev’s family. She so enjoyed your friendship and time you spent with her. She loved working for all the events and enjoyed playing Bingo with you. Your desserts, salads, and time given for the funeral was amazing. Thank you!”

Old Business:

1. Felician Celebration - Everything went well. Received a lot of compliments.
2. Christmas Cookie sale

The sale started on Saturday at 2:00 p.m. There was a line of people waiting for the sale to open. Another cookie sale will be held in 2025. There were a number of requests for molasses cookies. Kathy Groshek was thanked for all the work and organizing she did to prepare the sale.

3. Christmas Party

The cost of the meal was the same this year as last year. Members will be looking at other caterers for Christmas 2025.

4. Tracking cookbook sales, should we?

Delores Lepak moved that the cookbooks do not be tracked. Seconded by Ann Omernik. Motion passed unanimously by voice vote.

New Business:

1. Ponczka and peanut square making

The baking and sale will take place Friday and Saturday of this week. Prices will be the same as last year. Filled $13.00, Plain $12.00 and $5.00 for peanut squares.

2. Bingo Planning - Everything is set to go. Betty Ostrowski has the cards.
3. Other

Barb Kurszewski asked if the PCCW should continue to honor the 25 and 50 year members since dues aren’t collected any more. That was the way members year was tracked. Delores Lepak moved that the 25 and 50 year members be honored. Seconded by Germaine Zoromski. Motion passed unanimously by voice vote.

Closing prayer said by Arlene Gross, President, PCCW.

Next meeting scheduled at 1:00: pm Monday, February 10, 2025. Thank you, Ruthie Printz and Dorothy Burant, for treating.

Sign up for desserts.
